

These are my notes regarding Module 2 exercises

Canadian War Graves Commission

For my initial search, I simply searched my surname, and Canada, and received 19 results, which can be seen here . I have uploaded the data spreadsheet via github and it now resides here.

Epigraphic Database Heidelberg

For the epigraphic search, my Latin is currently escaping me, so I simply searched 'figlin' as the professor recommended, the uploaded data of which can be located here. Next, I searched for potters in Algeria, which is much more interesting if you ask me--apparently potting(?) was quite a thing in Algeria, as it came up with 807 results.
